

OUTER DEFENSES OF ROME PIERCED

FOUR GERMAN RAIL CENTERS ARE BLASTED

DESTRUCTION RAINS ON OIL SOURCES AT PLOESTI

BY W. W. HERCHER
London, Thursday, June 1 (AP)—Following up a tremendous daylight aerial assault on Hitler's Europe from the west and south by possibly 3,500 Allied planes, RAF night raiders smashed at the French coast from Calais to Cape Gris Nez early today with its heaviest bombing of the war.

The mightiest blows yet struck at the Nazis' vaunted westward reverberated across the channel like an earthquake, echoing through the night with great, repeated blasts.

Armada Flies Low

The moon and the stars shone over the channel as the fleet of British bombers thundered across the little strip of water, seemingly flying lower than usual.

Flares were dropped soon after the planes had passed from sight and as the unnatural glare showed on the horizon German ack-ack gun fire sounded.

The noise of this barrage seemed to die as the bombs dropped, touching off great blobs of fire one after another.

The attack, like the four which preceded it in the same region, was as short as it was sharp and a little more than 15 minutes after the blasting began the planes began streaming back to their bases.

In skies virtually clear of the enemy and at a cost of one bomber and four fighters, from 750 to 1,000 American heavyweights from Britain pounded enemy railway yards at Hamen, Osnabruck, Schwerte and Soest—transport centers just inside Germany which feed the coastal defense zones.

Locomotives Shot Up

For the fourth consecutive day more than 1,200 fighters flew escort but finding no opposition in the air they swooped down and shot up more than 35 locomotives and aircraft parked on air-dromes.

Late in the day Thunderbolt and Lightning fighter-bombers attacking two western German airbases struck the first sizeable fighter opposition, 30 FW-190s, and shot down five without loss to themselves.

Smoke clouds visible for miles rolled up from the Ploesti fields after upward of 750 Fortresses and Liberators from Italy dropped their cargoes of destruction, hitting at least one major refinery. It was the third straight day of big bomber attack on central Europe from the south.

Coal Mines Turned Back To Operators

Washington, May 31 (AP)—Secretary Ickes today returned to private ownership coal mines producing 60 per cent of the nation's bituminous coal.

He declared that management and labor "are now on trial to prove to the nation that they can fulfill wartime responsibilities under their own power."

Today's action left in the government's possession only the anthracite mines, the mines of the Southern Coal Producers' Association, and certain scattered operations on which word is awaited as to execution of the new war contract recently approved by the War Labor Board.

Fierce Attack Stopped Cold By Red Army

BY RUSSELL LANDSTROM

London, Thursday, June 1 (AP)—Large German forces continued to attack fiercely Russian lines north of Iasi in Romania yesterday but were repulsed without advancing "even one step" and left "thousands of dead" on the battlefield, Moscow announced early today.

The enemy's losses were enormous in the series of attacks and counter-attacks which raged throughout the day, the Russians said in the broadcast supplement to their nightly communiqué.

Giving an indication of the intensity of the furious air and tank battles which started Tuesday after a six-week lull on the main eastern front, Moscow reported knocking out 122 German tanks and shooting down 164 enemy planes in two days of fighting.

The full meaning of the assault remained obscure. Associated Press Correspondent Eddy Gilmore in a dispatch from Moscow said the Soviet press and radio had carried no stories from the front lines and gave no elaboration on the communiqué.

Gilmore said the Nazi thrusts appeared designed at upsetting Soviet concentrations in that sector rather than the beginning of a full-scale offensive, but added that it still was too early to say definitely.

The Russian bulletin said there were no changes on other sectors of the front, although there were indications from various sources that a flare-up on the northern front may develop soon.

MURDER CLUE IS FINGER NAIL

Boys Held In Houghton And Ontonagon County To Be Questioned

Detroit, May 31 (AP)—Police disclosed today their principal clue to the killer of Mrs. Jean Long, part-time secretary to the pastor of the Twelfth Street Evangelical church whose stabbed body was found in the church a week ago.

Found near her body, officers revealed, was a broken piece of finger nail with a small particle of flesh attached.

Two officers were to leave tonight by automobile to question four runaway boys, who disappeared from homes in the neighborhood of the death scene shortly after the slaying on the night of May 23.

The boys, all in their teens, were arrested in Houghton and Ontonagon counties, where they had gone to visit friends and relatives. Sheriffs of the Upper Peninsula counties said preliminary questioning of the four brought denials of any knowledge of the killing.

Others held for questioning have been freed. Recorder's Judge John V. Brennan released Mrs. Long's husband, Kenneth, on $2,000 bond after a habeas corpus hearing today. Alex Simpson, Chicago salesman and acquaintance of Mrs. Long, went free yesterday. Officers said they had found nothing to connect either man with the fatal stabbing.

Designer Credited With 15 Husbands Since Back In 1926

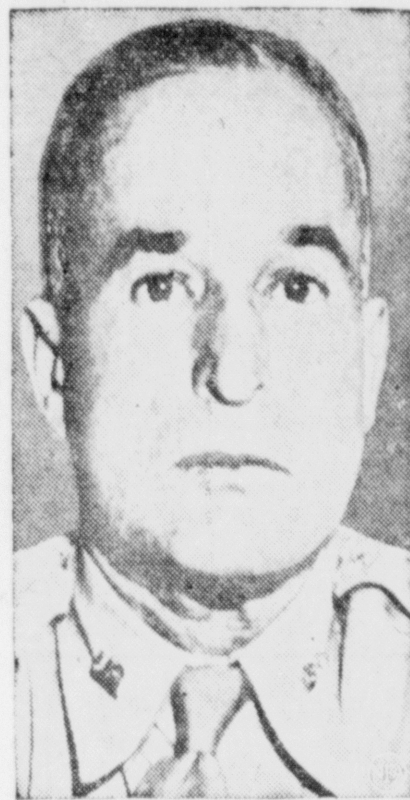

Detroit, May 31 (AP)—A 35-year-old auburn-haired dress designer is held here on a Federal charge of fraudulent receiving servicemen's dependent allowances on account of four husbands, but FBI agents said today her marital adventures were much more extensive than that.

In fact, if she used the names of all the husbands she remembers, her name would be: Mrs. Marian Labyatt Hopkins Coffey Sperron Fitz Barker Storckmann Neumann Patchett Zerich Wilhelm Osworth Horn Galvin Stankowich.

That's 15 husbands since 1926, according to the Federal Bureau of Investigation court.

Robert A. Guerlin, agent in charge of the FBI office here, said the Federal charges concern only her marriages to Francis Laverne Wilhelm, Lloyd H. Osworth, Jacob E. Horn and Alex Stankowich. Guerlin said the marriages last January to Stankowich provided her with her fourth allotment from the government.

Mrs. Marian, ex-Stankowich has waived examination on the charges and is held under $4,000 bond pending action by a Federal grand jury.

Mass Gestapo Killings Emphasize Nazi Jitters

BY RICHARD KASISCHKE

London, May 31 (AP)—The German Gestapo pressed a ferocious new wave of terror in France, Holland and Belgium today with mass shootings and arrests of the patriots on whom Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has called to assist his coming liberation armies.

This ruthless blood-letting, reported by the French press service in London, offered new evidence of possible jitters within the armed fortress of Europe and contrasted sharply with the calm confidence evidenced in this invasion base. The British press gave prominent headlines to the WPB report that the United States was producing a plane every five minutes and to Navy Secretary Forrestal's announcement that there now were enough landing craft to carry the entire invasion army over the waters to Hitler's Europe. Both articles were significantly noted by the public.

The French underground reported the "complete ravaging" of the Dordogne department when the Nazis surrounded the town of Ribereux and "piled into trucks 100 Frenchmen from whom nothing more has been heard."

"All inhabitants found on the road leading to Ribereux were shot on the spot," the report said, "and the Germans set fire to a forest where many people were gathering wood. They burned alive."

The same day, the account continued, 26 hostages were shot at Brantome and the bodies were left in the public square 24 hours. At St. Quentin 27 persons were slain in reprisal for shooting the collaborationist mayor. In Belgium 20 were slain for an attempt on the lives of two Walloon quislings, the Belgium news agency reported.

The number of Dutch patriots executed by German authorities in occupied Holland in the last week reached a total of 18 today with the reported execution of two more persons for "sabotage."

The pre-invasion traffic jam on England's narrow winding roads was reflected in a highway casualty report which showed a more than 10 per cent increase of persons killed and injured in April over the same month in 1943, which itself was 10 per cent above the last pre-war April. Casualties for April totaled 10,497, which were 1,743 more than April, 1943.

BRICKER CALLS FOR MORE TALK

Ohio Governor Wants Dewey And Others To Take Stump

(By The Associated Press)

Governor John W. Bricker of Ohio, saying he is making an "affirmative campaign" for the Republican presidential nomination, yesterday (Wednesday) again called on Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York and others for open discussion of current issues. In an interview, Bricker also announced plans for a speech-making campaign which will run until the Republican national convention.

Dewey has said he agrees with Bricker that the issues should be discussed but that he is not a candidate for the nomination.

Indiana, last of the mid-west states to name its Republican national convention delegation, will begin choosing 29 delegates tonight (Thursday) with Governor Thomas E. Dewey given a chance to pick up additional farm belt support.

People Of Iceland Vote 70,536 To 365 To Leave Denmark

Reykjavik, Iceland, May 31 (AP)—The people of Iceland, one of the world's oldest democracies, voted 70,536 to 365 to sever their 700-year-old ties with Denmark and form an independent republic, final figures on last week's plebiscite voters on the island participated.

The young republic probably will be proclaimed June 17, an Icelandic national holiday.

The althing, Iceland's legislative body, prepared to convene June 10 to name the island's first president, who will serve for one year. Thereafter, a president will be elected by the people for a four-year term.

DeValera Assured Of Dail Majority

Dublin, May 31 (AP)—Eire voters re-elected Prime Minister Eamon De Valera and at least six of his cabinet members in the general election Tuesday, early returns showed tonight, and De Valera's Fianna Fail party apparently has been assured of a majority in the dail (parliament).

COURT HOLDS 13 IN LANSING BRIBERY CASE

JACKPOT TO BUY VOTES BARED BY HEMANS

Lansing, May 31 (AP)—Thirteen defendants named in a grand jury warrant charging them with conspiracy to corrupt the 1939 legislature's actions in passing the intangible tax law were bound over today to the circuit court for trial.

Major Charles F. Hemans, former regent of the University of Michigan and self-styled dispenser of graft to legislators, testified as the prosecution's chief witness, declaring that as the hired agent of five of the defendants, he had paid "bribes" approximating $2,000 to nine others, who then were members of the state senate and house.

One Fights Extradition
Only 13 of 14 defendants named in the warrant were involved in the examination completed today before Circuit Judge Leland W. Carr, the grand juror. The 14th, Armand E. Robichaud, public relations counsel of the Beneficial Management Corporation, is fighting extradition to Michigan from his home in Newark, N. J.

One-by-one, Hemans named the defendants and testified that each had played a part in efforts to corrupt legislative consideration of the intangible tax.

He asserted in a matter-of-fact voice that a "jackpot" was formed to "buy" legislators' votes, and assure that the tax bill was either amended as the alleged bribe payers wanted, or defeated.

Senate Payments Higher
He testified that to form the "jackpot" he obtained a sum of money, the amount not mentioned, from Robichaud as the agent of Beneficial Management, which operates small loan companies in the state; $3,200 from Julian Thompson, lobbyist for the Household Finance Corporation of Chicago and the Michigan Association of Small Loan Companies, and another contribution from John E. Hancock as the "treasurer" for a group led by Abraham Cooper and George Omacht.

All five are defendants. Cooper is president of the Union Investment company of Detroit, Omacht general counsel of the Associates Discount Corporation of South Bend, Ind., and Hancock Detroit branch manager of Associates Discount.

As their hired agent, he testified, he paid bribes—mentioning sums—to the legislative defendants "to influence their votes," asserting members of the senate

Detroit City Bus Crashes Injure 23

Detroit, May 31 (AP)—Twenty-three persons were injured, five severely, in two accidents involving two city buses this afternoon.

Fifteen passengers in one bus were hurt when the bus crashed into a utility pole at Warren and Wyoming streets. The driver, Edward Hein, 46, told police he lost control of the bus while swerving to avoid hitting an automobile.

Eight other passengers were injured when a bus, driven by Thomas S. Landers, 48, crashed into a safety zone at Mack and Gratiot streets.

Marquette Inmate Taken Into Custody Without Struggle Near Gwinn

Marquette, May 31 (AP)—State police officers shortly after four o'clock this afternoon captured Alfred A. A'Hern, fugitive lifer, from the Marquette prison, who escaped last Saturday afternoon from the prison dairy, where he was employed as a trusty.

He was apprehended about ten miles south of Gwinn.

A'Hern was first seen by conservation officers, who notified state police after he had fled again into the woods. A state police car rushing to the scene spotted him shortly afterwards. He surrendered without trouble, and was returned immediately to the prison.

Drivers Of Bakery Trucks End Strike

Detroit, May 31 (AP)—James Hoffa, international representative of the AFL's Teamsters Union, announced that striking bakery drivers voted at a mass meeting this afternoon to return to work.

Hoffa told Louis C. Miriani, chairman of the Regional War Labor Board, that the men agreed to resume delivering bread beginning tomorrow afternoon and Friday morning.

U. S. Bombers Batter Approaches To Tokyo

BY LEONARD MILLIMAN

Associated Press War Editor
American bombers took up the gauntlet against Japan's defenses, with the most extensive sweeps ever made against the Kuriles and a triple blow at the Carolines, as fighting for new air bases on Blak Island in the southwest Pacific dwindled to artillery exchanges and patrol activity.

South Pacific bombers swept Truk, Woleai and Satawan islands on the Caroline central Pacific road to the Philippines while army and navy bombers hit the northern approaches to Tokyo in the Kuriles.

Two more stiff Japanese counterattacks were repulsed on Blak before action lapsed into a consolidation of positions. Gen. Douglas MacArthur reported today (Thursday) that 679 dead Nipponese had been counted up to Memorial day. He did not mention American casualties. On Blak they have run into the stiffest opposition in the southwest Pacific campaign.

Liberty Ship Breaks Up On Island Outside Golden Gate

San Francisco, May 31 (AP)—More than 1,000 navy men were rescued from a stricken transport and surrounding waters today after the SS Henry Bergh crashed aground in rain and heavy fog on the Farallon Islands 30 miles west of the Golden Gate.

The 12th Naval district said there were no reports of casualties. The vessel, a Liberty ship under private charter as a service transport, tonight was understood to be breaking up. It was inbound from the Pacific war theatres, and struck the islands just before dawn.

Hundreds of men took to the water in life jackets and on rafts; others made the rocky shores of the small islands visible from the Golden Gate bridge on a clear day. Most of those in life jackets were picked up within an hour. Destroyers and patrol boats under the western sea frontier were busy picking up rafts all day.

By late afternoon, most of the "more than 1,000" aboard were at the navy's receiving station on Treasure Island in San Francisco bay.

King Peter Ready To Make Tito Head Of Yugoslav Army

London, May 31 (AP)—King Peter II is prepared to name Marshal Tito commander in chief of the Yugoslav army to replace Gen. Draja Mihailovic and has invited Dr. Ivan Subasic to form a new government and establish contact with Tito's partisans. It was learned tonight.

It is understood that the royal exile is sending the marshal a pledge that he will not attempt to return to Yugoslavia until after an election on the post-war government.

Dr. Subasic, former governor of Croatia, is not expected to try to form a unity government to replace the dismissed cabinet of Dr. Bozidar Puric until after he has exchanged views with Tito.

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND, (by wireless)—The commander of the tank-destroyer battalion I have been visiting is Lieut. Col. Joseph Decey, of Sheboygan Falls, Wis. He used to run a wool-carding mill there. I like his attitude toward things.

When I first showed up he was perfectly courteous but he made plenty sure I had proper credentials and what not. As he said, they have plenty of security preached into them back home, and this indeed is a critical period and he isn't taking any chances.

But once he had assured himself I was all right he called in his sergeants and told them to go around and tell their men they were perfectly free to show me any and all equipment they had and talk to me as freely as they wanted to.

As I told him later I don't think he need have bothered. For these boys, approaching war for the first time, pumped me so thoroughly on what war is like that I hardly got a chance to ask any questions of them. Maybe I'll have to write some security regulations of my own just out of self-protection. Who the devil is reporting this war, anyway?

western end of New Guinea ended with U. S. Sixth Army troops still two miles from Mokner air-drome, yesterday's southwest communiqué said. The Americans had gained only half a mile since Sunday, compared with a two-mile advance in their first 24 hours ashore on Blak.

Two hundred miles to the east other Sixth Army units had been stalled on the edge of the partially completed Maffin air field since May 24.

Four Kurile Islands were bombed Monday—the most that have been attacked on the northern invasion route in a single day. The raids ranged from Shimushu, 1,000 miles from Tokyo, to Shumushu, northernmost of the island chain. The Paramushiro naval base and Matsua also were hit.

U-BOAT SPARES REFUGEES' SHIP

Orders From Berlin Halt Torpedoing Of Vessel Off Bermuda

Philadelphia, May 31 (AP)—A fully-lit refugee ship carrying 385 passengers was halted off Bermuda by a German submarine last Friday, the navy disclosed today, and the U-boat abandoned preparations to torpedo the ship only after wireless orders from Berlin.

The Germans seized two American citizens, the navy said, and in the dead of night—set all the other passengers adrift in lifeboats for 5 1/2 to 9 hours. Three persons, including a 16 months old baby, lost their lives in the transfer to the boats.

The ship was the Portuguese Serpa Pinto, which docked here secretly last night. Those who died were Beatrice Trapunski, infant daughter of a Polish couple; Antonio Ferreira Machado, ship's doctor, who fell into the sea from a Jacob's ladder; and the cook, Hermano Antonio, struck in the head by a swinging block of lifeboat tackle.

The American citizens captured by the Germans were Manuel Pinto, 22, Waterbury, Conn., and Virgilio Magina, 22, New Bedford, Mass.

A British subject, Camilo Grande Perez, 24, native of Canada, also was taken aboard the submarine but was released.

The incident occurred 600 miles east and slightly north of Bermuda, the navy said.

Over 100 Arrested In Shipyard Fraud Against Government

Boston, May 31 (AP)—More than 100 shipyard workers at the Bethlehem-Hingham plant, where vessels are being constructed for the navy, were arrested today on charges of conspiring to defraud the government.

Federal Bureau of Investigation men termed it "the most extensive war fraud racket of its type uncovered by the FBI."

The arrested men included counters and welders. Boston FBI Chief E. A. Soucy said the former agreed with piece work welders to record false credit while the latter kicked back a share of the wages received for work not done.

In some cases, Soucy added, individuals received as high as $75 a week extra and government officials believed overpayments would total more than $500,000. Some of the workers were taken into custody by FBI agents and deputy U. S. marshals as they left the plant this morning. Others were arrested as they reported for the next shift. And still others were taken at their homes.

STIFF BATTLE ASSURED FOR ETERNAL CITY

NAZIS THREW FULL POWER INTO LINE TO HALT ALLIES

BY NOLAN NORGARD
Allied Headquarters, Naples, May 31 (AP)—American and British troops drove into Rome's outer defenses with increased fury today and smashed through to a point west of Velletri, a key fortress in the Nazis' powerful new mountain line before the Eternal City.

Allied troops who advanced through deadly fire and repulsed savage counterattacks west of Velletri were reported to have reached a point within six miles of the Pope's summer home at Castel Gandolfo and within approximately 14 miles of Rome.

British forces driving up from the south, on the coastal flank of the 25-mile battle line before the Italian capital, were edging forward through thick mine fields south of Pescara Nuova, which is 14 miles due south of the edge of Rome.

Resistance Desperate
Nazi forces entrusted with the immediate job of stemming the Fifth Army's assault until the bulk of Field Marshal Albert Kesselring's 10th army could be withdrawn from the broken Hitler Line, continued to offer desperate resistance all the way from Montemonte to the sea.

An Allied communiqué said "It is now clear the enemy intends to hold this line at all costs."

Edward Kennedy of the Associated Press wrote from the fighting front at 6:30 tonight that the Germans were "delaying the Allies as long as possible and making them pay dearly for every inch gained in Italy." He said it was a hard slugging match, with Allied troops pushing ahead but having no easy time of it.

In today's fighting, Kennedy said, American troops broke into Nazi positions between Velletri and Valmontone and occupied points threatening Velletri.

Transport Columns Wrecked
All available German troops have been thrown into the line, and it has become plain, a headquarters spokesman acknowledged that only a very powerful drive will split it open. All four key strongpoints in the line—Valmontone, Velletri, Lanuvio and Campoleone—have been under fierce assault for several days and fast are being turned into smoking ruins by massed Allied artillery.

Allied airmen took a continuing toll of enemy troops and transports withdrawing before the Eighth army. One RAF wing destroyed 97 vehicles and damaged scores when it spotted a German traffic jam north of Frosinone. Marauder medium bombers made several attacks on bridges over the Tiber River near Rome. In all yesterday's operations the Mediterranean air forces lost five heavy bombers and three other planes while destroying 15 enemy craft.

The Germans seized two American citizens, the navy said, and in the dead of night—set all the other passengers adrift in lifeboats for 5 1/2 to 9 hours. Three persons, including a 16 months old baby, lost their lives in the transfer to the boats.

No Cosmic Punches Putting Lou Nova On Comeback Trail

Galveston, Tex., May 31 (AP)—The "cosmic" punch. What's that? Asked Frank Pacassi, manager of Lou Nova today as the Californian slammed along the comeback trail with eleven straight victories.

The 204-pound Nova, erstwhile publicized Yoga Man, hammered Jimmy Webb of Galveston into submission in seven rounds last night and looked forward to his next and probably toughest fight with Buddy Scott at Oklahoma City Friday.

But there'll be no mystery about the punches thrown by Nova as he lays claim to the rank of No. 1 heavyweight in the country. When Lou was getting ready to fight Joe Louis in 1941 there was much said about Nova, the Yogi, and the cosmic punch. Louis put both to rest. But Pacassi, former business manager for Jack Dempsey and Max Baer, wants to know how they got that stuff in the first place.

They're definitely gone with the wind which blew them in, answers Frankie. "What is a cosmic punch?" he asked. "Do you know? I don't and I haven't found anybody else who can tell me."

COURT HOLDS 13 IN LANSING BRIBERY CASE

"came a little higher" than members of the house.

Hamilton Go-Between
He testified he paid $150 each to the defendant Representatives Francis J. Nowak, Edward J. Walsh, Earl C. Gallagher and William G. Buckley and former State Senator Ernest G. Nagel, then a member of the house, $400 to Representative Walter N. Stockfish of Hamtramck to be shared with other legislators whom he did not identify; "$250 or $300" to Senator Leo J. Wilkowski and a like amount to Senator Charles C. Diggs, and "$50 or $100 more than that" to Senator D. Stephen Benzie because Benzie was some sort of Democratic leader in the senate.

Hemans declared the "heat was on" from some legislators for more money than originally had been promised when the fate of the bill was in the balance on the night the legislature concluded its session.

He testified former Representative John F. Hamilton of Detroit, who later served a prison sentence on a charge he received a bribe to influence his vote in the Detroit common council, was the man through whom he worked in the house. Hamilton then was a state representative.

"Robichaud," he testified, "was at my elbow" and as the price of votes rose they found it necessary to confer with Thompson, who he said was under instructions to stay out of the maneuvering on the theory that "too many cooks spoil the broth."

To Have Immunity
Both Hamilton and the then Representative Miles McAllaghan of Reed City, now awaiting sentence on a plea of guilty to a prior legislative graft conspiracy warrant, received additional money and promises of money for their work for the bill that night. Hamilton and Hemans both have immunity from prosecution.

The Small Loan and Finance companies, he contended, wanted the bill amended to place a ceiling on the amount of intangible tax they would have to pay, and permission to offset notes payable against notes receivable in computing the tax. The alternative, he said, was defeat of the bill, and the amendments carried.

Defense counsel moved to have the warrant quashed after Hemans had testified as the final witness, but Judge Carr held those arguments were not convincing. The defendants were released in bond for trial tentatively scheduled for the current term of court, which will not end until September.

Lansing, May 31 (AP)—The State Conservation Department, supporting predictions of an improved tourist business this year, reported today that Memorial Day brought out 30 per cent more persons to state parks than on the same holiday a year ago.

The increase was attributed to perfect holiday weather and a mounting desire for recreation. The department said state parks close to populous centers showed the greatest upswing in attendance.

Attorney Is Freed In Washington Love Triangle Shooting

Washington, May 31 (AP)—A jury acquitted Robert I. Miller tonight of a charge of murder in the "love triangle" slaying of Dr. John E. Lind, noted psychiatrist. The eleven men and one woman on the jury deliberated one hour and seventeen minutes before returning the verdict which held the 67-year-old attorney blameless when he shot Lind last February as the psychiatrist sat in an automobile on a downtown street with Mrs. Miller beside him.

The white haired defendant received the verdict without any show of emotion and gravely thanked the jurors. Mrs. Miller, who was a witness for the defense, was not in the courtroom when the verdict was returned.

The court had left open to the jury any verdict from first degree murder with the death penalty, to acquittal or acquittal by reason of insanity.

SWIMMING TO OPEN JUNE 10

Lifeguards On Duty That Day; Safety Patrols
Now Under Way

Escanaba's Ludington Park swimming beach will officially open June 10 if lifeguards can be obtained by that date, City Recreation Director Bevier Butts announced yesterday.

Meanwhile park safety patrols are being maintained in an effort to prevent swimming in the lagoons, yacht harbor and at other unsuitable and hazardous places, Robert Clayton, superintendent of parks and forestry, said yesterday. These patrols will continue during the summer, with approximately two miles of shoreline to be watched.

Every effort is being made to safeguard the lives of those who frequent the park shore. The co-operation of the public was requested by Clayton in respecting the necessary ban on swimming anywhere except at the swimming beach.

One park patrolman is on duty from 3 p. m. to dark on school days, and from 10 a. m. to dark on vacation days. It has been found advisable to have at least two patrolmen on duty when the beach is closed on holidays and weekends early and late in the season, Clayton said.

At times last week-end and on Memorial Day there were from 500 to 1,000 people in Ludington Park. Many children were attracted to the water's edge and considerable persuasion was required to convince them that swimming is prohibited in the park area except at the beach.

"Last summer we were fortunate in having a season without a

NAZIS WORK ON ILLINOIS FARMS—German prisoners of war assigned to work in the vegetable fields and canneries of Hoopston, Ill., are marched under guard from the railroad station to their branch of the prisoner of war camp.

drowning," Clayton said. "We hope this year will be the same. If we have the support of the parents, I'm sure this will be possible. "Quite often we see very young children playing, unattended, on the shoreline in the uncompleted portions of the park. Parents can help by warning their children to stay away from the water until the season opens."

Park patrolmen are instructed to keep children away from the water at dangerous points, to report reckless driving of cars and other vehicles, and to apprehend vandals who seek to destroy park buildings or other public property.

The city council has authorized improvements for the swimming beach and approaches, which will be started as soon as the necessary manpower is available. Meanwhile cooperation of the public is sought in avoiding undeveloped portions of the shoreline.

Kefauver's Resolution Has Merit, Says Childs

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington—The business of getting one branch of our government to speak to another branch is unbelievably complicated even in times like these. When it comes right down to it, that is really all Congressman Kefauver is trying to do in his resolution calling for a period when cabinet members and heads of bureaus would come before the house for questioning.

M. Childs

They are walked away in separate worlds—the executive arm and the legislative arm. The length of Pennsylvania Avenue between the cliff-like offices of the executive branch and the capitol is scarcely more than a mile. Yet it might as well be a thousand miles.

What Congressman Kefauver proposes to do is to build a bridge between the two walled-off compartments. It would make a little communication possible on a face-to-face basis.

Russian Cruiser Incident
Under his resolution, executive officials of the government would be invited before congress for a question period. They couldn't be compelled to come. But as Kefauver has pointed out, refusal would subject them to embarrassment and ridicule, plus the strong suspicion they had something to hide. Such an exchange might easily avert the kind of mess that arose over the cruiser that supposedly went to the Russians.

The house would have such a question period at least once every two weeks but not oftener than once a week. During the first part of this period, the cabinet member of bureau head would answer written questions previously passed on by a house committee. Then, for the balance of the time, members of the house could fire oral questions, with Democrats and Republicans having an equal opportunity.

It would be a substitute for one of the fundamentals of British Parliamentary government—the question period in the House of Commons. It wouldn't have the sanction of the constitution but, if it worked as a means of getting the two wings of our government closer together, then in time it might become basic law. Occasionally, it's been said that the Press conference is a substitute for the Parliamentary question period. This point is made particularly with respect to the White House conferences.

Press Parley Ineffective
Nothing could be sillier, President Roosevelt, at times, has ordered reporters to put on a dunce cap when they've asked questions which annoyed him. That couldn't happen in a Parliamentary question period.

Even a prime minister with the power and prestige of Winston Churchill must pay heed to the questions of the humblest members of the House of Commons. If he answers impatiently or disdainfully, he's likely to find himself under fire from other members who jealously guard the privilege of interrogating the government.

Even in wartime Britain, cabinet ministers at the question hour stand up to defend and explain the policies they are responsible for. From all over the chamber come sharp questions, often pressed home when the minister's replies are evasive or unsatisfactory.

It is impossible to press a question at the White House and difficult with lesser members of the government. The rule is no cross-examination. And, "No news on

JACOB KAUKOLA DIES TUESDAY

First Finnish Settler
At Rock; Was Ill
For A Month

Jacob Kaukola, 66, of Rock, died Tuesday at St. Luke's hospital at Marquette after a month's illness.

Mr. Kaukola was the first Finnish settler in Rock. He settled there in April 1905 and had been a resident of the community for the past 39 years. He was one of the organizers and a life long member of the Finnish Lutheran church of Rock. He served on the board of directors of the Rock Cooperative company and of the Upper Peninsula Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance company for several years.

Born in Kurikka, Finland, on July 21, 1877. He came to this country and first settled in Ishpeming in 1898. On May 30, 1901 he was married to Josephine Kaminen at Ishpeming. They made that subject," is a convenient evasion.

The Washington newspaper correspondents have tried to supply a missing link in our governmental system. The press attempts to fill the role of intermediary between legislative and executive branches. But as it has neither authority nor real responsibility, the assignment has been an unhappy one.

An enduring basis for co-operation between the law-makers and the law-enforcers must come by amendment of the constitution. But by no more than a vote of the House of Representatives it would be possible to get a test of a new method. Its success might pave the way for swift acceptance of a constitutional amendment.

Funeral services will be held in the Finnish Lutheran church at Rock at 1:30 p. m. on Friday, June 2. The body is at the Jackson funeral home in Ishpeming and will be brought to the church at 10 a. m. Friday for friends to pay their last respects.

Not Soundly Founded

IT WILL be generally recognized as a "sour" note, sounded by the Battle Creek city commission, in opposing Gov. Kelly's plan for giving statewide signal to the people of Michigan when "Invasion" or "Liberation" hour comes. It will be a signal to call the people of this commonwealth to prayer—not a signal for jubilation or celebration.

Members of the Battle Creek commission have voted not to participate in this state-wide observance, holding that the tolling of church bells and the sounding of whistles will constitute a jarring note, that will disturb the solemnity of the hour. The sole purpose of Gov. Kelly's plan to bring the news of Invasion hour to the people of this state, by requesting the tolling of church bells and the sounding of whistles in every community, is to call the people, through the length and breadth of the state, to solemn prayer. No better means than that suggested by the governor would be devised and by the provisions of the plan, exactly two hours after bells are tolled and whistles are sounded, the people of Michigan will pause, wherever they may be, or whatever that may be doing at the time, for a moment of simultaneous, solemn prayer, for the lives of our fighting forces, who in that hour face the shot and shell of a cruel enemy, in order that Christianity may live in this world.

The complaint made by the city of Battle Creek is not soundly founded.

More Paper Needed

ARE you sure that you have turned in all the waste paper that has been accumulating in your basements and attics?

A survey, recently completed by the United States Department of Commerce, indicates that in April there were 550,000 tons of waste paper uncollected in urban and rural homes in America. According to the statistics compiled, there are 166,559 pounds in Escanaba households based on the average of 46.1 pounds per family. The average household has 17.6 pounds of newspapers, 20.5 pounds of magazines, 5.2 pounds of brown kraft and 2.8 pounds of wastebasket paper on hand.

Demands for waste paper are increasing due to urgent war needs. It is required particularly for the making of paperboard containers for the shipment of plasma, medical supplies and fighting equipment to the far-flung war fronts.

Housecleaning time is a good time to get rid of the old newspapers, magazines and other paper articles that have been taking up space in the basements and attics. Salvage dealers are paying good money for waste paper nowadays, and those who sell it, incidentally, are performing a patriotic home front service.

Sault Hospital Saved

REP. FRED BRADLEY reports in his weekly news letter from Washington that a good stroke of business was done when Governor Kelly sent a delegation to the national capital to confer with army officials on a plan whereby the state would take over the new million dollar Fort Brady temporary hospital.

The army hospital, built while 12,000 troops were stationed at Sault Ste. Marie to guard the locks, has facilities for 400 patients. After the troops were removed, the army had no more use for the hospital and announced it would be sold at auction and dismantled. Citizens of Sault Ste. Marie naturally became aroused, and began beseeching Washington and Lansing officials to do something to keep the institution in operation.

According to Rep. Bradley, a growing shortage of hospital beds in the lower Michigan area has been noted in recent months. With federal hospitals filled, the state is being requested to take care of returning veterans on a per diem basis in its own institutions. After careful study, consequently, it was decided that it would be possible for the state to use the Fort Brady hospital by transferring some 400 patients, who require little medical attention, from Lower Michigan institutions to Sault Ste. Marie.

Governor Kelly submitted a proposal to the army for the state to rent the Fort Brady hospital for five years, the rental price to be $5,000 for the first year and $7,500 for each succeeding year. At the same time, the state reserved the right to buy the hospital for $85,000, representing a reasonable salvage value. Bradley explained that it is expected it will cost the state about $100,000 to equip the hospital for use, since everything moveable was removed by the army when it was closed.

So, it appears that the traditional army policy of scrapping facilities instead of turning them over for worthwhile civilian use has been stalemated in this particular case. It should mean some saving to the taxpayers and the addition of state hospital facilities so sorely needed at this time.

City Beautification

CITIZENS of Menominee, realizing the importance of having an attractive community, have volunteered their services in an unique flower growing project on the streets of that city.

The planting of flowers on an individual and community basis is one way of attaining the goal of the city beautiful. Outstanding jobs along this line have been done by Holland, Mich., and other American communities.

There are many other methods, of course. A city can be made more attractive by the frequent painting of residences and business buildings, the cleaning of streets, the maintenance of lawns and other grounds, and by the planting and proper care of shade trees.

Escanaba has been making notable progress in community beautification, but there is still much to be done. In recent months, the business district and some residential sections have been enhanced in appearance by the razing of old, dilapidated buildings, which were eyesores, fire and safety hazards, and breeding places for rats and other vermin. There are many more unsightly landmarks around town that should be removed from the landscape.

DR. WILLIAM D. HENDERSON
(Grand Rapids Press)

The name of Dr. William D. Henderson, retired director of the University of Michigan extension service who died Friday at Petoskey, will always be associated with the expansion of the University's educational facilities to thousands of adults and to students who could not attend at Ann Arbor.

In 1911 when the university's extension division first came into being as a half-day-a-week venture, Dr. Henderson became its head. Under his inspiring guidance the division expanded to become a great educational service embracing a dozen bureaus which reached into every part of the state to provide adult education institutes, lectures, correspondence courses and other decentralized methods of pursuing knowledge.

As a pioneer crusader for adult education, Dr. Henderson came into contact with more than a half million residents of the state, and through his visits to cities and villages throughout Michigan he came to have an intimate understanding of community educational and economic problems, a knowledge which he put to excellent use in advising those who sought his counsel.

There was about Dr. Henderson so much personal dignity and so much respect for the dignity and the rights of others that those in all walks of life who came to know this kindly, competent man remained to admire him. His greatest achievement, that of bringing the university to the people, will remain as the living memorial of a man who counted service to others his greatest privilege.

ABOUT MICHIGAN PRODUCTS
(Detroit Free Press)

Clarence Bolander, deputy agriculture commissioner, raises an old but increasingly valid point in his remarks about the advertising of Michigan food products.

Michigan raises more food of many kinds than the people of Michigan eat, but the State lags in letting the excellence of our farm produce be known beyond our borders. None of our products has the reputation of, say, Maine or Idaho potatoes or Oregon apples, although many of them are sold far and wide to out-of-state markets. Our fruits go to 18 States; our beans are sold everywhere. The point is, that none is identified as Michigan-grown.

The situation is given further emphasis by a comparison of money spent in advertising commodities. Michigan now spends about $40,000 a year on marketing advertising of all agricultural products. Potato advertising amounted to $4,800 this year. The Maine Development Commission, by contrast, spent $200,000 singing the praises of Maine potatoes!

There are many special problems to be overcome. But Michigan's great food-growing industry and the State Government would be serving the whole State well if a new start could be made in the direction indicated by Bolander.

State air is actually injurious, says a doctor. Yet the kid next door keeps right on practicing it.

The father of twins is always doubly proud. Puts on heirs.

World War In The Air

BY MAJOR A. P. de SEVERSKY

The unfolding successful actions in Italy are not an isolated event but must be viewed in relation to the entire European strategic picture. In particular, the victorious advance must be related to the intense aerial bombardment that has been in progress for several months against the whole continent.

Air specialists have always tried to make it clear that the results of operations in the skies are often latent—they do not make themselves manifest for weeks or months. The more favorable tactical picture in Southern Italy, I believe, is without doubt one of the latent reflections of our successes in the concentrated aerial offensive against Hitler's Luftwaffe.

Although the Italian peninsula is on the same continental land mass with Germany, its geographical character puts it in a somewhat different category from the rest of Europe. The significant fact is that it is separated from the source of the enemy's military power, Germany proper, by a formidable mountain range. While communications, for purposes of reinforcement, are all overland, they are an extremely difficult type of communication, and so few in number that they can be more readily cut off in part or in full.

—SUPPLY LINES HAMPERED—

In a sense, therefore, Italy is cut off from Germany—provided the attackers have the necessary aerial superiority to enforce the separation. And that has been the essential meaning of the great air power offensive. Because we have engaged the main German air forces and steadily cut down their defensive capacity, our air strength in Italy has been able to interfere seriously—perhaps fatally for Germany—with the enemy's flow of men and supplies to the Italian theater.

Elsewhere on the European continent we have to reckon with confronting the total German air power. Local superiority will not suffice, since the Germans will be able to rush all that they have or need for the endangered spot. The communications are overland and the necessary supplies and equipment can be concentrated where needed.

In Italy we have been able to restrict the enemy's forces, so that we have to meet and overcome only a specific amount of opposing force. It is that which makes victory possible. It was for the same tactical reasons that we won in Tunisia, where we likewise isolated a definite quantity of enemy power and defeated it.

Despite differences in terrain, the picture is in many ways analogous to the one that developed at El Alamein. In the long period of seeming stalemate on that front, it will be recalled, General Alexander carefully built up his own forces while Allied long-range air power—represented by our Liberators—prevented Rommel from doing likewise. In time we therefore had a six-to-one superiority in men and machines, making the defeat of Rommel a certainty.

Rommel's troops were isolated by reason of a water gap, which we denied to the enemy. The German forces in Italy are isolated by reason of a mountain barrier, which we are similarly denying to the enemy. What the world sees is the actual struggle on the ground. It does not see the process of severing the Germans' supply lines, preventing the expansion of forces and the concentration of materials which preceded during the seeming period of stalemate.

—GIVES MORE AIR BASES—

In Southern Italy, as in Tunisia and El Alamein, we have been able to build up our forces—they are being constantly added to through open lines of supply even as the battle proceeds. The Germans have not been able to do so, or at least to do so on the same scale, because they lack long-range strategic aviation of the kind that we possess. Hence we enjoy a superiority that is netting dividends in victory after victory.

Had Hitler possessed a strategic air force capable of intercepting our reinforcements far behind our fighting fronts, the favorable alignment in Italy would have been impossible. The air offensive mounted from the British Isles is what cut down the Luftwaffe and thus played a crucial role in the drama of Italy.

Success in Italy will have far-reaching effects on the larger struggle to bring Germany to its knees. It means that the ring of air bases is being pulled more tightly around the enemy's neck. Italian bases farther north will make the demolition of the German industrial heart easier. Also, they will provide a canopy of air power over the Adriatic should amphibious operations against the Balkans be undertaken from the Italian peninsula—as well as a canopy of air power over Sardinia and Corsica should an invasion of Southern France be contemplated.

"Goody! You Come to Help With Laundry, Yes?"

Good Morning!

By The Bugler

MEMORIAL DAY — The sun was warm and bright on the backs of the folks who gathered along Ludington street to watch the parade pass. The veterans of 26 years ago made a brave showing—so many of our men of promise in the community helped lick the kaiser back in '17 and '18. They step almost as proudly as they did a quarter of a century ago—almost—but not quite. The watching throng along Ludington street is a remarkable crowd.

There are so few young men left in town any more. So few young men! But there are millions of them, nine millions of them, all fighting a war. Hard to think there's a war on, isn't it? The cars in the parade, the bright sun shining on their pre-Pearl Harbor paint, gas stations, ice cream cones, middle-aged fathers carrying kids, mothers just looking—a little emptily, a little achingly at the marching men.

They have sons who are marching too—but not down Ludington street. There are no waving flags or playing bands where they are.

The look in the eyes of the mothers is just a little questioning, a little bewildered. What are the people excited about? Why should they feel pleasure at the sight of marching men? For their sons are marching on distant shores—in the mud of Burma—on the tense soil of England—the rocking earth of Italy—the steel decks of battle ships—marching, marching, closer—closer—

They shake their heads and look at the Boy Scouts, the Drum and Bugle Corps—the Sons of the Legion—Well, there are nine million sons marching on this Memorial Day. Marching closer to their destiny and ours—while mothers watch—and pray.

Lakeview cemetery is such a quiet and peaceful place. The kind of place to become sadly reverent. The trees cast a cool shade, while the flowers and flags on the graves make a brave showing. There is solace in the muted sound of the crowd, in the drone of a speaker's voice, in the promised scent of budding lilacs.

But where the battle is, where the guns roar and eternity is the next second—the next minute, or hour, or day—there are our sons! No peace for them. No shade or sound of muted voice—but only heat and rage of bloody madness. No sweet scent—but only carrion death and the heavy oppression of a burning hell.

Our quietly solemn ritual speaks of peace or the forgotten wounds of wars so long past they are like an old scar—we know they are there yet we do not feel them. Impressively we talk and think of heroes dead, for this is Memorial Day. Here we are gathered to pay tribute to those who gave their lives that our nation might live—here we are gathered beneath the cool shade—in the security—in the peaceful heart of a rich land.

The immortal words of Lincoln at Gettysburg are as familiar as the front steps of our home. We take them one at a time, knowing what is ahead. They are but familiar words that lead us to familiar things.

"Four-score and twenty years ago"—our poor power to add or detract—"shall not perish from the earth." Yes, they are familiar words, powerful words that seem to have lost their power to move us. They fit into our pattern of shaded peace, of quiet contentment.

Standing there, the little discomfort of a gravel pathway makes us move slightly—and like ghosts of nine-million men there moves in our consciousness—the thought that no little discomfort such as this would make a soldier move. Huddled in a fox hole at Hollandia, on the beaches of Tarawa, the jungles of New Guinea one little movement, seeking comfort, means death!

There is death in the morning, when attacks are made, and the shaking of a trigger finger can be either malaria or fear. There is death at noon, when the hot sun cooks steam from the recent jungle rain—or the baked clay of an Italian hill.

It really makes no difference when you die. Except that here, at home it's all a part of things, and death is civilized and just the thing to do at the appointed time.

There's no amount of words that, spoken here, can change one little minute of his life or hold back death for half an hour.

The talk of heroes, of sacrifice and all that speakers say is just a way of letting people down. Why salute and salute us at home, wrap us up in coddling phrases, nicely turned? Yet underneath it all is something deeper than the words—a very human urge to make us feel that those who died in war are not to be forgotten. This is what Memorial Day is for, a renewal of our pledge to greater effort—not for ourselves so much, but for those who need our help.

For this is what our fighting men are doing now—giving of themselves for others.

There are nine million men of ours who are working for others. For those who die we will have the hand play and there will be a parade.

But what of those who live? And of those boys of today who, in manhood, may become the heroes of tomorrow?

Memorial Day must then become a never-ceasing rite, commemorating heroes yet unborn—the sons of our daughters, and our daughters' daughters. Some day let's hope there'll be a memorial day for those who live—in peace.

NEW YORK — When Joe E. Lewis entertained the troops in the South Pacific, he returned aboard a cargo plane. The crew spotted a periscope. "But we have no bombs," they told Lewis. Joe turned to his accompanist, Austin Mack, and said: "Give me your accordion. That weighs a lot."

Mack dissuaded him from using the accordion as a depth-weapon, by reminding Joe that it was irreplaceable. "Then give me your shoe," Lewis suggested. Mack reminded him that shoes are being rationed. "I'll tell you what," Lewis finally proposed, "let's drop the sheet-music of 'Romona.' We haven't used it for a long time. I've just got to drop something on that sub!"

"But sheet-music!" asked Mack. "Yeah, sheet-music," replied Joe. "But first, of course, roll it up!"

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON
(Lt. Col. Robert S. Allen now on active service with the Army)

Washington—The White House has almost more human warmth these days than at any time since the piping times of peace, when Hitler was only a clowning curiosity, when Stieglitz and Buzze Dall were romping around the south lawn, and when the younger Roosevelt boys, Franklin and John, frequently were home on vacations from Harvard.

Reason is that Anna Boettiger, eldest and favorite child of the President, has come back to the White House to live, probably for the duration.

With her is her five-year-old son, Johnny Boettiger, Jr.—hanging on White House drapes, digging up the lawn, parading with the soldiers in front of the White House, and generally making things brighter.

His father, Major John Boettiger, who recently returned from North Africa, also is around part of the time, and the First Lady herself has been home more than usual since the President came back from his vacation.

All of this is not exactly an accident. Part of it probably was inspired by Admiral Ross McIntire, a good family doctor. The Admiral knows that the mind and body and nerves all go in one piece, and that happiness and calmness are necessary sometime during the day, even when every minute of the day is crowded. Therefore, friends of the family give part of the credit to Admiral McIntire for having Anna and her mischievous son around the White House.

When Mrs. Roosevelt dropped in on her husband the other day en route from New York elsewhere, she spent a longer time alone with him than at almost any other time recently. And she probably will be around more than usual in the future, for Ross McIntire has been very definite that someone must be on hand to be dictatorial with the President and make certain that he doesn't overwork for long stretches.

Last winter's illness was due to exactly that. The President came back from Teheran hoping to concentrate only on the war, but found Congress snarling mad, the country threatened with a rail strike, and domestic affairs none too happy. So he had to pitch in and do double duty on both the war front and the home front.

To avoid a repetition of that situation and to keep an eye on "the old man," as much of the Roosevelt family as can stay home from the war will now be under one roof.

—BILL FOR WINNIE—

The Senate of the United States sat in dignified session last week. It was considering bills for the relief of private individuals. Suddenly the droning voice of the clerk boomed out:

Some Senators tittered. Senator Kenneth Wherry of Nebraska broke into a hearty laugh.

Up rose gnarled, austere Senator Harlan Bushfield, Republican of South Dakota, author of the bill for the relief of Winnie Left Her Behind. It was plain that he resented the hilarity of his Republican colleague from Nebraska.

A great friend of the Indians, Senator Bushfield explained that Winnie is an Indian woman, about 50, living on the Rosebud Reservation in South Dakota and owning 160 acres given her by the Government in 1912. Her husband 66, is blind and unable to work the land. Therefore, she wants to sell. But she cannot sell because of a Government policy aimed at preventing Indians from selling their land to speculators.

Senator Bushfield explained that the Indian couple live in a tepee on the South Dakota prairie, with no fuel, little food, totally inadequate clothing, and with the temperature sometimes dropping to 30 below. So he had introduced a bill requiring the Secretary of the Interior to permit Winnie Left Her Behind to sell her land, probably for around $300.

Worry Clinic

With Case Records Of
A Psychologist

BY DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
CASE C-258: Betty R., aged 22 is a stenographer.

"My problem is heart breaking to me," she began directly. "Up till six months ago I was engaged to be married."

"My boy friend was drafted. Several weeks later I went to a dance with four other girls and met a soldier just home on furlough. He had only a five-hour wait between trains, so had come to the dance to kill time."

"As soon as I stepped into the room, he asked me for a dance. We continued dancing every dance all the rest of the evening."

"Before I left, he asked if he could write to me, so I gave him my address. But I have never heard from him."

Burning Her Bridges
"I know that this may sound silly but I fell in love with him the moment I saw him. I knew then that I could never marry this other boy to whom I was engaged, so I sent him ring back and explained to him."

"Six months have now passed and I still can't forget this soldier with whom I danced that evening. I know I shall never get him out of my mind."

"Don't think it's a silly crush because it isn't. I haven't gone out with any man since I met this soldier. When boys call me for dates, I just tell them I don't feel like going out."

"This soldier is on my mind constantly and I just can't take an interest in anybody else. What can I do?"

Rule Your Emotions
Wouldn't it be silly of Betty if she had been accustomed to her mother's good home cooking, and then became so delighted with a new dish some hostess served at a party that she went on a complete hunger strike thereafter because she couldn't have more of the new dish?

What if the new dish was more tasty than her accustomed foods? If you cannot have cake, then eat bread and go on living, for life consists of making choices and trying to get the best things available.

But all of us must learn that we can't have perfection in everything, so we should reconcile ourselves to the next best.

Betty's chance contact with the young soldier was romantic. Maybe he was a more stimulating man than her fiancé. If so, and if she could marry him, all right. But if not, it is ridiculous to make a fool out of yourself grieving over ghosts.

Better have an 80 per cent flesh and blood suitor than a 100 per cent thrilling ghost lover.

Ghost lovers can't take you to dances or movies. They don't entertain you with dinners or auto rides. Nor can they put a wedding ring on your finger. Besides, they are a total wasteland as a father of your hoped-for children.

So get wise to yourself. You can love any one of a dozen suitable males if you have a chance to make their acquaintance. But in the ordinary course of events, you seldom have an opportunity to meet more than two or three whom you'd contemplate marrying.

If Number One then slips out of your grasp, be sure to hang on to Number Two. Don't be juvenile!

FEW SPURIOUS COUPONS IN U. P.

Counterfeiters Not Very Active, OPA Check Reveals

A recent check of gasoline ration coupons in the Upper Peninsula by the Office of Price Administration has revealed that counterfeit coupons to the value of 105 gallons were discovered out of a total of approximately 1,000,000 gallons, or one-tenth of one percent. The checkup covered the ration bank accounts of 144 retail stations and represented about one month's business.

The OPA enforcement division reported that although the percentage of counterfeit stamps discovered is infinitesimally small, it did reveal that some stations are continuing to accept detached ration coupon stamps in violation of OPA regulations.

There were no counterfeit stamps discovered in the check of other ration coupons, including fuel oil, processed foods, meats and fats, sugar and shoes.

The investigation covered 105,000 gallons of fuel oil and 15 dealers, 10,500 processed food coupons and 163 dealers, 7,200 meats and fats coupons and 89 dealers, 7,500 sugar coupons and 81 dealers, and 2,000 shoe coupons and 30 dealers.

- Super "cleans itself," stays lovely!
- You can't buy better, at any price!

YOU SAVE ON THE COST PER GALLON!

Super is top-quality, at a money-saving price. In impartial laboratory tests with the top grades of the 6 best-known nationally advertised house paints (ALL HIGHER IN PRICE) Super proved—it HIDES BETTER (because of more Titanium Dioxide); GOES FARTHER (gallon covers 600-900 sq. ft., one coat); and LASTS LONGER (because it contains a more expensive Linseed Oil).

2 YOU SAVE ON THE "COST PER YEAR!"

In the average house paint job, only one-third of the cost is the paint itself; the other two-thirds is the labor. This labor cost is the same for a low-grade house paint (that will need repainting in a year or two) as it is for a LONG-LASTING top-grade paint like SUPER. That's why the longest lasting paint you can buy will cost you the least per year. So PAINT WITH WARDS SUPER ... and SAVE!

OSCAR WEBERG HURT BY TRUCK

Ensign Man Seriously Injured Yesterday Afternoon

Oscar Webberg, about 57, of Ensign, was seriously injured at 2:30 yesterday afternoon when he was struck by a truck loaded with tie cuts while walking on the Osgood road (County Road J-15). He was rushed to St. Francis hospital for treatment.

Sheriff's officers investigating the accident reported that Webberg was struck by a truck driven by Mark B. Allen of Rord River.

The truck was traveling north on the road and Webberg was walking south, officers said. Allen told them. As the truck approached the driver sounded his horn but when the truck reached him, Webberg stepped into the road.

He was struck by the left front end of the truck. Allen stopped quickly and got out to assist the injured man. He told officers that he was driving about 20 miles an hour.

At St. Francis hospital last night it was reported that Webberg was unconscious. He suffered head and leg injuries and his condition is serious.

FAMILY GROWN: BECOMES BUS DRIVER — Mrs. Oren De Haven, who handles the bus for the Peoples Rapid Transit Company between Kalamazoo and South Haven, took the job because after all but one of her family of six had left home, she didn't want to sit around with virtually nothing to do. The oldest son, Oren De Haven, Jr., is a coxswain in the U. S. navy, stationed in England. Four daughters are married, and only a son and her husband, a power plant engineer at South Haven, are now at home. fighter. Being in the horny-handed world of pugilists, he has a great affinity for apes. There's an almost human ape at the zoo in a nearby city which McClory goes to see every time he gets a pass. He calls him "Alfred the Ape," and says he sure wishes he could take him back to Cleveland.

McClory used to work for the Cleveland Welding Co., which made bicycles. When I asked him what he did he said, "Oh, I was just a hod knocker."

You can kid lots with McClory. When I went to write down his name I put "Sergeant" in front of it, and he said, "No no, I'd never get to be a sergeant if the war lasted 50 years."

So I said, "Well, 'Corporal' then." But he said, "No, I ain't even got sense enough to be a corporal."

So I said, "Well, we simply can't have you a private. What would the McClorys of the world think with you only a private?"

So we compromised and made him a pfc.

McClory is one of those guys who are good for the morale of an outfit. He is always doing or saying something funny. And he is a good soldier. He is one of the kind who are fanatically loyal.

He has a great affection for his company commander, Capt. John Jay Kennedy of Rosindale, Mass. Once when some gasoline caught fire McClory threw himself on the Captain and knocked him out of the way, saving him from serious injury. Another time, when Captain Kennedy's mother was very ill, McClory took the last money he had and telegraphed home to his own parish to have a mass said for the Captain's mother.

A number of men in the battalion told me later that McClory was the kind of man they would like to have with them when the going got tough.

Here in England this battalion is living in pyramidal tents, sleeping on cots. But when they start across they will take only pup tents and two blankets apiece and they will be sleeping on the ground. Their haversacks bags with extra clothes and stuff will catch up with them some time in the dim future.

I had been under the impression that all troops recently arrived from the States would be wearing the new infantry boot which we have been issuing in Italy. I had heard that the old cumbersome and unsatisfactory leggin was in limbo. But these boys all wore leggins and had never heard of the new boot.

English dogs have begun to attack themselves to the tank-dog-trooper boys, as they do to any and all camps of soldiers. These boys

The Memorial day parade started immediately after the unveiling program. Memorial services were held at Maple Grove cemetery.

Law Officers Will Attend Conference

Law enforcement officers of the county and cities today expected to attend a meeting at Marquette which combines the FBI law enforcement conference, and the U. P. Michigan Association of Law Enforcement Officers.

One feature of the program will be two U. S. Army attack dogs perform. The dogs are specially trained for various purposes, including attack, guarding prisoners, and to find land mines.

It is believed by H. I. Bobbitt, special agent in charge of the FBI office at Grand Rapids, that many ideas for law enforcement might be obtained from the demonstration, and that after the war dogs might be used for many useful purposes.

Munising News

Trend Of Tourist Inquiries Changes

Gasoline rationing and the rubber shortage have changed the type of inquiry from prospective tourist visitors. It was stated today by Lewis L. Merwin, secretary of the Munising Development Club.

Unable to travel by automobile, many prospective visitors want information about train and bus transportation, connections at junction points, checking of baggage, etc. Several have inquired whether any of the large lake steamers make Munising a port of call. Still others say they plan to travel by bicycle.

Resort operators, hotel and cabin owners report they are receiving a number of inquiries from former customers who plan to return for several weeks.

New Munising Honor Roll Is Dedicated

Unveiling and dedication of the new honor roll memorial at the Legion county club highlighted the annual Memorial Day observance program here Tuesday.

Ideal weather brought out a large crowd. The dedication ceremonies consisted of presentation of the flag, flag raising, unveiling, dedication and prayer. A dedication address was delivered by Walter Corey, commander of the Roderick (Buck) Prato post, American Legion. The Mather

WHY telephones are hard to get

For a long time, almost all new telephone apparatus that could be made has had to go to the Armed Services. ... Factory space and manpower cannot be diverted to make equipment for civilians.

Despite all that, since National Defense got under way in 1940, Michigan Bell has added close to a quarter of a million telephones. That was made possible only by using up all our reserve equipment and by stretching to the limit the facilities we had.

We've crowded our switchboards and cables beyond their normal capacity. Where any residential service could be supplied, we've usually put in party lines instead of individual lines. And we've repaired and returned to service all usable old apparatus.

Orders for telephones essential to the war are filled promptly. Other requests for new service are handled under a definite procedure, as present users give up service. But there is a long and growing waiting list.

We believe you would want us to meet war service needs ahead of comfort and convenience for civilians. And we appreciate your understanding and co-operation.

Tigers But 2 Games From Top; Cubs Drop Third Straight To Giants

HOMER IN NINTH BEATS YANKEES

Detroit Winning Streak Extended To 5 Games By 6-2 Triumph

BY WATSON SPOELSTRA

Detroit, May 31 (AP)—Utility infielder Albert Unser hammered a four-run homer with two out in the ninth inning today to give the Detroit Tigers a 6 to 2 victory over the New York Yankees for a third straight triumph over the champions. The Tigers thus extended their winning streak to five games.

Detroit was trailing 2 to 1 going into the ninth and Rookie Walter Dubiel, who had pitched a four hitter, seemingly had things under control. But an error by Shortstop Mike Milosevich set off a five run rally. Chuck Hostetter driving one in with a fly to tie the score and Unser, batting for Joe Hoover, belting the ball into the lower left field stands to break up the game.

Rudy York got life on Milosevich's error and went to third on Finky Higgins' double to left. Dubiel passed Jimmy Outlaw intentionally, filling the bases, to get at Hostetter, who fanned in a similar situation in the seventh. This time the 28-year-old rookie filed deep to center, York scoring after the catch.

Bob Swift popped for the second out, but pinch hitter Paul Richards drew a pass, again filling the bases. Manager Steve O'Neill sent up Unser, who had made one hit in eight trips to the plate this season, and the 27-year-old utility man hit the first pinch major league homer for Unser, who batted .248 in 38 games for Detroit last season.

Overmire Lived—The Tigers got five-hit pitching from Frank Overmire, but the Yankees clustered two hits and a walk for both runs in the sixth inning. Overmire was lifted for a pinch-hitter in the eighth, and Joe Murrell, who pitched a hitless ninth, was the winner for his first major league victory.

Aside from the sixth, Overmire permitted only one Yankee to reach second. That was Arthur (Bud) Metheny who doubled to open the fourth but advanced no farther. With two out in the sixth, Metheny drew a pass and scored when Ed Levy's double rolled under the bullpen bench in left field. Nick Etten singled, scoring Levy, and that was the extent of the New York offense.

The Tigers got one run back in the seventh off Dubiel, 24-year-old right-hander who held Detroit without a hit for five innings and yielded a single to Swift in the sixth.

In the seventh Roger Cramer beat out an infield hit to George Stinewiss and Eddie Mayo beat one out down the third base line. York singled to center, scoring Cramer. Higgins sacrificed, advancing the runners, but Dubiel passed out to fill the bases and fanned Hostetter and got Swift on a foreout.

The victory put the Tigers only two games behind the Yankees. The clubs end the series tomorrow with Ruffus Gentry pitching against Joe Page.

ERROR HELPS INDIANS

Cleveland, May 31 (AP)—The Indians scored five times in the third inning on three hits and an error to trounce Boston 7 to 4 today, registering their third consecutive victory over the Red Sox.

Although the Sox outbatted the Tribe 9 to 7, Cleveland kept out front with tight defensive play, including four double plays.

Roy Cullenbine's double with two outs added scored Vernon Kennedy and started the third inning rally. Pat Seery was purposely passed, filling the bases. Then Oris Hockett singled to score Lou Boudreau and Cullenbine. Lamar Newsome bobbled Ken Keltner's grounder, allowing Seery and Hockett to cross the plate.

DEAD-HEAT KIDS TO RUN AT NTS

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 31 (AP)—Michigan's "Dead Heat Kids," twins Bob and Ross Hume, will compete in the mile run at the Central Collegiate Track Meet at the Great Lakes naval training station Saturday. Coach Ken Doherty said today, "No other Michigan men will compete at Great Lakes."

The Humes, Western Conference co-champions in both the indoor and outdoor mile events, have made track history this year by finishing a majority of their races arm-in-arm for the victories. Bob, the Wolverine track captain this year, turned in a 4:14.9 mile for his fastest time during last winter's Chicago relays. Brother Ross was timed at 4:15.9 in the same race.

Coach Doherty and the twins are proudest of a record the Humes made in a quadrangular meet at Lafayette, Ind., two weeks ago when they stepped to double victory in the mile at 4:16.4 to equal a mark untouched by Michigan runners since H. L. Carroll recorded that time in 1916.

The Humes will probably wind up their college running careers at Milwaukee in the National Collegiate on June 10. Although the twins are only juniors here both are pre-medical students and do not expect to have time from an arduous scholastic schedule to train for the grueling distance runs next year.

The rest of Michigan's track team has disbanded following Saturday's winning effort in the Big Ten championships at Champaign, Ill.

Racing Cut Nets $178,465 To State

Detroit, May 31 (AP)—Under revised tax schedules, the state's revenue from horse racing at the state fairgrounds track is $178,465 for the first nine days of the 75-day meeting, it was disclosed today. The state and city of Detroit share this income.

Last year the state received a flat daily fee of $4,500, but this year there is direct participation in the betting pool, which in nine days amounted to $4,176,179. State Racing Commissioner William J. Dowling is of the opinion that the state's share will reach $1,500,000, many times the 1943 figure.

SHE COACHES—Women are doing just about everything else these days, so why not a feminine baseball coach? Mrs. Gladys Dillon, science teacher who has been on the school staff for 10 years, is in charge of the Flint Carman School nine, at the request of the boys. She consented to coach the team & they would give her a rule book. Robert Hale is the boy on the bench. Mrs. Dillon has kept track of her team's victories, three, but she isn't sure how many it has lost—"about six." (Flint Journal Photo.)

The Sports Parade

By Ken Gunderman

Another Upper Peninsula Relays passed into history Tuesday, the 17th annual track carnival held at Escanaba. It was a good show, probably even a little more exciting than some of past years. The crowd, however, was disappointingly small, which brings up again the thought that some revision of the program may serve to stimulate interest in the event. One must concede, of course that a major reason for the lack of customers at the Relays is the war—and the fact that hundreds of the most rabid sports fans are serving in the service of their country.

AMERICAN LOOP LEAD TIED UP

Browns Take Senators, 4 To 3, In Eleven Inning Battle

St. Louis, May 31 (AP)—The St. Louis Browns jumped into a first place tie with the New York Yankees tonight as they won their third straight game from the Washington Senators on an 11th inning. The score was 4 to 3. The Browns staged a movie-thriller uprising in the last half of the ninth inning to score two runs and tie the game. Al Hollingsworth who took over for the mound duties from Jack Jakucki in the ninth received credit for his first victory of the year.

Alex Carrasquel, Washington relief pitcher who replaced Roger Wolff in the 11th, was the loser. Jakucki opened the game's scoring in the third with a home run into the left field bleachers. The Senators tied the game in the seventh; scored two more in the eighth to take a lead.

The tying run in the ninth was driven in by Gene Moore, traded during the spring by Washington to the Browns.

PASSEAUGIVES UP IN FOURTH

Reyes Drives In 6 Runs For New York, Wipes Out Chicago Lead

New York, May 31 (AP)—Led by Napoleon Reyes, who clouted two home runs and a single to drive in six runs, the New York Giants defeated Chicago 8-5 today, for their third in a row over the Cubs and their fifth straight triumph.

Besides Reyes, Danny Gardella of the Giants and Don Dallesandro and Bill Nicholson of the Cubs also hit home runs. Dallesandro's circuit clout came in the first inning with two on, to climax a four-run rally.

The Giants reduced that lead to one in the fourth, by scoring three, aided by Reyes' first homer. They took the lead in the next frame when Reyes' singled Mel Ott and Gardella home. The Cuban third baseman's second round tripper tallied two of the three runs scored by the New Yorkers in the seventh and sewed up the game.

Frank Seward went the route for the Giants, winning his first major league game. Claude Passeau struck out six men in the first three innings, but was knocked out in the fourth, although Bill Fleming, his successor, was charged with the defeat.

VICTORY FOR ROOKIE

Bricklyn, May 31 (AP)—Calvin McLish, eighteen-year-old graduate of Oklahoma City's American Legion nine, hurled his first major league victory Wednesday night by holding Pittsburgh to five hits as the Brooklyn Dodgers knocked out an 8-4 decision.

Dixie Walker boosted his league-leading batting average to .436 with three hits in the Dodgers' 15-blow barrage off Nick Strincevich.

Pittsburgh 001 010 200—4 5 2
Brooklyn — 105 001 10x—8 15 0

LANIER TAKES SETBACK

Boston, May 31 (AP)—Homers by Max Macon and Connie Ryan forced Southpaw Max Lanier to accept his first setback in seven starts today as the Boston Braves defeated the pace-setting St. Louis Cardinals, 5-1, behind right-handed Red Barrett.

Barrett got off in unsteady fashion and the Cards nicked him for three of their seven hits to score their first inning run, driven in by Vladek Kuroski.

Ryan's circuit blow came in the sixth and the Braves gained a 4-1 lead in the seventh when Mike Sandlock beat out an infield hit after Chuck Clemens tripled.

Chuck Workman's double drove in Macon with the final Boston tally in the fifth.

The Braves have met the high-flying Red Birds six times to date and have drubbed them four times, one more than they were able to do in 22 tries last season.

Lanier also gave seven hits but they went for a total of 16 bases. The only extra-base made off Barrett was Kuroski's two-bagger and he was the only Card to connect more than once.

St. Louis — 100 002 000—1 7 0
Boston — 200 001 11x—5 7 0
Lanier and W. Cooper; Barrett and Hofferth.

PHILS END SLUMP

Philadelphia, May 31 (AP)—The Phillies came out of a slump today as Ron Northey, hitless in 11 previous times at bat, singled Jimmy Wadell across the plate with the run that beat the Cincinnati Reds 5 to 4.

Northey's hit climaxed a two-run batting rally in the seventh that chased Pitcher Bob Katz off the mound. Rookie Charley Schanz led the Reds to seven hits in scoring his fourth pitching victory of the year.

Phillies — 001 101 20x—5 9 1

ILLINI FAVORED IN TRACK MEET

Great Lakes, May 31 (AP)—Illinois today was installed the favorite to win the central collegiate conference track and field championship at the Great Lakes naval training center Saturday.

A field of 11 teams will compete in the meet. Lt. Comdr. Paul Hinkle, Great Lakes athletics officer, said: "The list includes Northwestern, Minnesota, Purdue, and Illinois from the Western Conference, Notre Dame, Marquette, Lawrence, and St. Thomas colleges, Central Michigan, Illinois Tech, and Great Lakes."

Michigan, which won the Big Ten outdoor title at Champaign, Ill., last Saturday with a point total of 70, second largest in conference history, has reported that it will not be represented in the meet although the other schools view the C. C. C. games as a good means of keeping their athletes in trim for the national collegiate championships at Milwaukee on June 10.

The A. A. U. ban on Glenn Cunningham, Mel Walker, and Floyd Hayes for competition in a collegiate meet, reduces Great Lakes list of probable point winners to Jerry Thompson of Texas, 1943 NCAA two-mile champion; Frank Fletcher, Seton Hall, 440 and 800, and Matt Coker, Ohio State, discus and shot.

Bengals Have Classiest Pitching Pair In League

BY WATSON SPOELSTRA

Detroit, May 31 (AP)—When the Detroit Tigers throw their one-two punch, they deliver a hard left in Southpaw Hal Newhouser and then come up from the floor with a right-hander in Paul (Dizzy) Trout.

In Trout and Newhouser, the Tigers have the most effective right-left pitching combination in the American League and one to be reckoned with in the currently tight pennant fight.

The two hurled seven-hitters against the New York Yankees Memorial Day, each gaining his second victory over the champions.

Newhouser's record is seven victories and three defeats, and Trout has won six and lost four. The only other big Detroit winner is Johnny Gorsica, giving the Tigers a three-man pitching staff.

Both Trout and Newhouser are 4-F in the draft, and their major league careers are strikingly similar. In four seasons with Detroit, Trout was a notorious non-winner, but last season he acquired poise and pitching temperament and became a 20-game winner with a fifth place club.

Only Spud Chandler of the Yankees matched that total.

Newhouser's first four seasons in Detroit uniform likewise failed to show a winning record, although he won nine and lost nine in Detroit's 1940 pennant year, his first full campaign in the majors. Last summer he won eight and lost 17, going nearly two months without a victory after pitching in the All-Star game.

The 23-year-old Newhouser, product of Detroit's sandlots, attributes his fast start to improvement in control, development of a new slider pitch and the constant guidance of Paul Richards, veteran backstop who helped Emil (Duke) Leonard back into the big show several years ago.

Even with his big 1943 season, Trout is short of a 5,000 lifetime mark with 59 victories and 60 defeats. Newhouser now has won 41 and lost 55. Together they have just 100 victories, but they seem destined to accumulate many more in 1944. Both are good bets to become 20-game winners.

Many Problems
It is easy to laugh now at the expressed fears as to the future of the game since the war started, but they were very real fears at the time.

There was the first fear that the public, or the government, wouldn't tolerate the continuation of the sport in wartime. Then there was the fear that transportation problems would prevent the teams from getting around to meet schedules.

There was the fear that attendance would drop, because of rationing and absence of established stars and one thing and another, to the point where the clubs could not afford to operate.

There was the fear of a work-or-fight edict, and the fear that the 18-35 draft, including fathers, would deplete the ranks of players until there wouldn't be enough athletes to make up the batteries.

There was the fear that northern training would kill interest in the game and that the players would be throwing the ball with a horseshoe pitching motion until their arms thawed out in mid-July.

There was the fear of a labor draft, and shortage of equipment, and the attitude of the boys in uniform. In fact, it's been a prolonged, fearful outlook all along, with we digger singers no sooner dug up one fear than we could fear some more.

OLD TIMERS

All old time softball players wishing to participate in the re-organized old time league are invited to report at No. 4 diamond tonight at 7:00 o'clock. Enough players turned out last Thursday to make about two and a half teams and it is hoped that enough will come out tonight to make a four team league. All who came out tonight will be given an opportunity to play.

BUYING SPEEDS UP FOR RAILS

BY BERNARD S. O'HARA

New York, May 31 (AP)—A wide variety of rail and industrial leaders today lifted the stock market's average price level to a new five-year peak and boosted many of the favored issues fractions to around 2 points.

The Associated Press 60-stock composite advanced 1 1/2 points to 33.4, transactions totaled 1,182,810 shares, the largest turnover since April 18, against Monday's 812,260.

The rail gains ran to a point or so for U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Goodrich, Montgomery Ward, Case, Deere, Johns-Manville, Eastman, Schenley, Delaware & Hudson and Texas Co. Du Pont and Pepsi-Cola each moved up 2. Laclede Gas preferred, up more than 10 points in the first hour, topped 1 1/2. Park & Tilford up sharply 10 points on the company's announcement of a whisky distribution to shareholders, broke 10 points under heavy selling.

NEW HIGHS IN BONDS
New York, May 31 (AP)—A wide variety of corporate bonds moved up to new highs in today's active market.

The 20 rails in the Associated Press averages attained the highest level since 1937 at 90.1 and the utilities and low-yields established new peaks for a year or longer at 106.3 and 115.3, respectively. It was the second successive trading day that rails and low-yields penetrated old marks. Volume expanded to $13,124,000 from $9,747,400 last Monday.

Brokers and the good performance was the result of a collection of favorable appraisals of the war and domestic business situation that encouraged owners of idle funds to put the money to work in bonds. This was partly substantiated by the expanded activity in the higher priced issues.

Hudson & Manhattan Income 8s and refunding 5s, beneficiary of a supreme court decision allowing the company an increase in certain fares, moved up 1 3/4 and 2 1/2, respectively. Correspondingly good gains were posted by some issues of the Baltimore & Ohio, Lehigh Valley, Missouri Pacific, Rio Grande Western and International Great Northern.

Firm gains elsewhere included International Telephone 4 1/2s and 5s, Manetti Sugar 4s, New England Telephone 5s, Socomey-Vacuum 3s, Texas Co. 3s, and United Cigar-Whelan Stores 5s. U. S. government bonds were steady.

Various obligations of Argentina, state and municipal, paced a fairly firm foreign department.

GARDEN FLIER WAR CASUALTY

Lt. Walter P. Joque Is Missing In Action
Over Italy

Lt. Walter Percy Joque, son of an over Italy since May 12, the war department informed his parents in a telegram Monday. He was a bombardier with a B-26 Marauder.

Lt. Joque recently completed his 30th mission with the Allied air forces in the Mediterranean area and was a member of the group that attacked the Monte Cassino monastery on Feb. 15. He has been based in Sardinia.

He is the third war casualty of the village of Garden. Others are S 1/c Glenn Hazen, who was aboard the USS Houston, and Pfc. Harold St. Ours, who has been missing in action in Italy since March 2. Although Hazen has been unreported for more than two years, he is still regarded as missing in action.

Other members of Lt. Joque's family, besides his parents, are two brothers, Stanley, U. S. Army, and Donald, of Detroit; and a sister, Ella Joque, R. N.

Before enlisting in the army, Lt. Joque was engaged in recreation work.

Social Security Cards Required

Boys and girls who take jobs in war plants should get a social security card to take with them, said Stanley T. Faulstich, manager of the Social Security board office in Escanaba. War plants require every worker to have a social security card before he is put on the pay roll.

Every employer on jobs covered by the law must have a record of the name and social security number of all persons on his pay roll, whether they work full time or part time. Application blanks for securing cards may be obtained at any post office if there is not a Social Security board field office in the town where the worker lives.
